

DISTANCE HEALING SPECIAL

Distance healing channels source energy just as hands-on healing, to encourage a state of physical, mental and spiritual balance and is a profoundly relaxing and nurturing experience. In order to personalise your healing experience we arrange a telephone appointment at which we meet and discuss your current needs to help me tune in to you. You are then encouraged to sit or lie down in a comfortable, undisturbed space to focus on receiving healing. Upon conclusion of the channelled healing I will call you again to share any pertinent feedback with you, including any sensations and insights.

Cost: $25 for a 30 minute session
